Sad is the day for any man when he becomes absolutely satisfied with the life he is living, the thoughts he is thinking, and the deeds that he is doing; when there ceases to be forever beating at the doors of his soul a desire to do something larger which he feels and knows he was meant and intended to do.

REDUCED FARES TO THE PACIFIC COAST

The Canadian National Railways will sell tickets at greatly reduced fares from points Winnipeg and Emerston west in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta to Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster, on Dec ember 5th, 7th, 12th, 14th, 19th, 21st, 26th, and 28th, 1922; January 2nd, 4th 9th, 11th, 16th, 18th, 23rd, 25th, and February 6th, and 8th, 1923.

Travelling on the Canadian National to the Pacific Coast is a definite pleasure. There is no better way of taking a holiday than by a trip over this road, the enjoyment starts when you do, and you do not have to wait for pleasurable experiences until you reach your destination. The Canadian National Railways owns and operates its own sleeping cars and dining cars. These cars, on through trains, are models of luxury and convenience built by experts and embodying improvements resulting from long years of of experience in studying the requirements of first class travel. An additional convenience is provided by tourist ear service. Canadian National tourist cars are all new and embody the latest and most modern improvements. Charges are only half those for accommodation in standard sleeping cars. For those bringing lunch, there is a kitchen provided in a compartment shut off from the rest of the car. A fire is kept constantly burning in the cook stove and a sink with taps provides hot and cold running water.

The dining cars, with their handsome finish, quiet decorative details and adequate arrangements, furnish a meal time environment both useful and pleasing and at reasonable cost.
All passengers have access to the Dining Cars.

The Canadian National Railways offers patrons the option of travelling all rail to Vancouver or rail to Prince Rupert, thence Grand Trunk Pacific steamships to either Vancouver or Victoria; or the trip may be made going one way and returning the other.

A greater influx of tourists and excursionists is expected at these North Pacific Coast resorts, as these cities have taken considerable trouble to make the countryside acquainted with the beauties of our coast points as winter resorts.

SCHOOL FAIRS FOR 1923

An important conference of officials of the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Education, interested in the work of the Alberta School Fairs, was held in the government buildings on Tuesday. The school fair movement has become very popular, and very substantial success attended this year's fairs. The conference discussed ways and means for improvements. There is a complete co-operation between the two departments in encouraging expansion along the lines of education which is brought into prominence through the activities of the school fairs. The prize lists and circulars regarding the 1923 fairs will be issued and put in circulation before the end of the present year.

It is better to say a good thing about a bad fellow than to say a bad thing about a good fellow.

CHICAGO SEED GRAIN EXHIBIT

The Department of Agriculture, and the Faculty of Agriculture of the University of Alberta, have arranged to have an exhibit of Alberta seed grain shown at the Chicago International Exposition which will be held December 2nd to 9th.

The grains for exhibit will be collected at three points in the Province and those desiring to enter should send their grain to one of the following:—Prof. Cutler, Faculty of Agriculture, University of Alberta, Edmonton; G. M. Stewart, Dominion Seed Branch, Calgary, or Don Bark C.P.R. Irrigation, Brooks. The grains will be examined and selections made of those best fitted to enter the competitions. Parties sending grain to the above addresses should also write to Prof. Cutler advising him of the classes in which they desire to have their exhibit entered.

The shipment of the selected grain
to Chicago, the passing of the U.S.
Customs, and the placing of the exhibits at the show will be looked after and the Department of Agriculture will pay the express charges to Chicago. If any of the exhibitors desire the samples returned, this would be done at the exhibitor's expense. A circular has been prepared at the University of Alberta, outlining the requirements necessary for the preparation of seed for the exhibit. The circular has been mailed to members of the Registered Seed Growers' Association, but it can be obtain by any prospective exhibitor by applying to Prof. Cutler, University of Alberta Edmonton.

PAYING UP

When I have paid my monthly bills I feel some peasant grateful thrills, emotions safe and sane; Glad smiles among my whiskers play, and to myself I softly say—"I have not lived in vain."

Downtown I journey in my coach; I see the tailor, Jinks, approach, and do not fear his glance; for I have paid him every groat I owed him for my picnic coat, and my highwater pance. I meet the tinsmith face to face; he bows to me with princely grace, he's glad to get my trade; he overhauled my handsome bus, and didn't have to fret and cuss o'er payment long delayed. And all the merchant-princes smile as I proceed in pompous style, along Commercial Street; I've paid the grocer for his cheese, the farmer for his humble bees, the butcher for his meat. Oh, friends it is a goodly thing to walk as proudly as a king, although you have no crown; to prance along with stately tread, and know you do not owe a red to any skate in town. So when its time for paying bills a peace serene my bosom fills, my spirit sings and hums; and I can't understand the gent who will not pony up a cent until the baliff comes.—WALT MASON

FISHING AGAIN

"You know," said a man on his return from a holiday, "it is really remarkable how mean some people are."

"How's that?" said his friend.

"Why, I went out with two other fellows fishing, and one of them suggested that the first man who caught a fish was to treat the rest." "We all both of these fellows had bites, and both of these fellows had bites, and were too mean to pull the fish up!"

"I suppose you lost then?" said the friend.

"Oh, no," replied the other, "I didn't have any bait on my hook?"

DOING HIS BEST

The vicar had called unexpectedly, and Mrs Smith had been out. However, little Bobby had been there, and while the visitor was waiting for Mrs Smith to return, did his best to entertain him.

"Well, Bobby, I hope you behaved nicely when the vicar called?" she asked on her return.

"Oh yes, ma! I heard him say that he hadn't a card with him, so I slipped a whole pack into his pocket when he wasn't looking."

EDITORIAL COMMENT

THANKSGIVING DAY COMES ROUND AGAIN

It comes almost as a shock to us to learn that we have almost reached Thanksgiving Day again. Possibly we have all been too keenly engrossed in our struggle for material preservation that we have overlooked the fact that we have anything to be thankful for. Our bins are not filled to overflowing. Our cash reserves are depleted. Our profits have fled. We face a year of sacrifice and straightened circumstances. All this at Thanksgiving Day.

Yet there remains much for which to give thanks. We are at peace after passing under the most heavy and ominous cloud of war but a few weeks ago. The most of us are in good state of health and enjoy the measure of happy homes. The simple (and truest) joys of human life are within the reach of us all. And our general economic condition compares favorably with the general world average.

The following short poem perhaps emphasizes the inner meaning of the message of today.

The tree that never had to fight
For sun and sky and air and light,
That stood out in the open plain,
And always got its share of rain—
Never became a forest king,
But lived and died a scrubby thing.

The man who never had to toil
To Heaven from the common soil,
Who never had to win his share ..
Of sun and sky and light and air—
Never became a manly man,
But lived and died as he began.

He who has vision is the one who can give thanks for the joys of struggle. We may add that this year we are forced to realize the truth of the old declaration that "a man's life consisteth not of the abundance of things he possesseth."

AUTUMN

We're just at the corner of autumn, with all its riot and glory of colour. We're stepping into another season—for some a period of accomplishment because they were ready; for others a period of preparation for future conquests and for all of us a reminder that we might have planned more thoroughly and worked with greater vigor. The present is a day of reckoning for the past.

The seasons roll around—there are only four—then we find ourselves launched into another year.

Prosperity follows depression as depression succeeds prosperity.

One cycle merges into the next and business records become commercial history.

It's never too early to plan and prepare—it's often too late to mend and profit.

THE THINGS THAT MATTER

When a fellow's gettin' old
An' his tale is mostly told,
When he knows life has in store
At the best a few years more,
That he isn't gettin' to find Any mine of gold, or claim
Special notices from fame,
Then he gets in closer touch
With the things that matter much

Youth looks ever far away
To some better, other day
That is always goin' to be,
Then he'll gain the victory;
An' he's always got his eyes
On some glittering future prize
Which he fancies he may win
Spite of all his blunderin',
Tellin' all along the way
He'll do something big some day

But the champions are few
An' the great deeds hard to do,
An' the dreamers, by and by
See things with a clearer eye
An' discover not to all
Can the pomp of glory fall;
Most of us must settle down
Findin' peace without renown,
Glad that we can come an' go,
Loved by those God lets us know.

When a fellow's gettin' old
An' his tale is mostly told,
An' the fame he dreamed about
From his life has faded out,
Then he finds that friends are more Than the gold he hungered for,
An' he rather spend his hours
With his children and his flowers
An' his neighbours, for in such
Is the peace that matters much.

Pay Your Taxes

Taxes provide the lifeblood of your community. If taxes were not paid, your schools would close, road work would cease, hospitals would close their doors, all community life would come to a standstill. Your first duty as a good citizen is to pay your taxes and if at all possible to pay them when the tax bills are sent out.

Every day of delay in payment of taxes puts an additional burden upon the men you have chosen to look after the affairs of your municipality; adds to the difficulty of financing and the cost of administration. Sooner or later all taxes have to be paid. WHY NOT PAY YOURS NOW?

MANY HOMESTEADS AVAILABLE

A recent homestead map issued by the Department of the Interior shows that there are over 50,000 quarter sections, or over 8,000,000 acres of land, available for homestead entry in the Edmonton district, north, north-east, and south-east and within a radius of from fifty to one hundred miles of Edmonton. There are also millions of acres available for homesteads in the Peace River and Grande Prairie districts.

HAY AND POTATO SHOW

A hay, potato, and seed grain show will be held under the joint auspices of Lethbridge Exhibition Board, the Department of Agriculture, and the Lethbridge District Potato Growers' Association, at Lethbridge on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 14th and 15th. This show is being assisted this year by a grant from the government in twenty-seven classes. The potato department is divided into seed and commercial varieties. Prize lists may be obtained from the Secretary R. W. Gardiner, Sherlock Block, Lethbridge.

GOOD INTEREST AND GOOD SECURITY

Unlike most securities, Saskatchewan Farm Loan Debentures are always worth one hundred cents on the dollar as they can be redeemed at par at any time by giving the Provincial Treasurer three months' notice in writing. The redemption feature involves no brokerage charge in securing the return of the funds invested. The redemption notice to the Provincial

OUR LITTLE ADS DO BIG WORK

cial Treasurer simply states at what branch bank the holder of the bond resides to receive his money, and when he surrenders his bond to the bank he secures the full one hundred cents on the dollar of his investment.

Debentures are issued in denominations of $20, $100, $500 and $1,000, and five $20, debentures can be exchanged at any time for one $100 or five $100 for one $500 debenture. The $500 and $1,000 debentures may be registered by holder.

CANADIAN GRAIN CROP

Some statistician has figured out that it would require 257,250 freight cars and 7,350 locomotives to move Canada's grain crops this year, and that if placed in a continuous string these cars and engines would make a train 2060 miles long, or almost the distance from Montreal to Medicine Hat. Canada's wheat crop this year is large enough to supply 35,000,000 people with a loaf of bread per day for a whole year.

WANT TO CHANGE LOCATIONS

The minister of Agriculture announces that his department is investigating the applications of more than one hundred farmers who desire to be moved from their present farms to new homesteads in northern Alberta, on account of their failure to make good in their present locations. The investigation covers the adaptability of the applicants, for certain phases of farming activity, with the idea, if possible, of moving them to a location that will be suitable for the line of farming they desire to follow. It is being distinctly stated to all that their future prosperity, if moved to the north, will depend on mixed farming—principally embracing (besides grain) dairying, hog raising, eggs and poultry—as a basis of their own living and a continuous supply of money. When applicants are approved they will be moved free, the provincial government, the federal government, and the railroads each bearing a share of the expense.

EDGERTON ECHOES

Enthusiasts of the 'Roarin' Game' held a very successful meeting in Gorton's pool room on Wednesday evening for the purpose of organizing for the coming winter. The outgoing president, E. F. Clendenan, gave a report on the club and called on the treasurer, R. V. Campbell to report on the financial end of it. The financial report showed the club to be in fine shape and hopes are entertained of finishing the coming season free of indebtedness.

The following list of officers were elected: Hon. Pres; H. E. Spencer, M.P.; President; N. Davidson: 1st Vice-pres; A. E. Ripley; 2nd Vice-pres; W. M. Spornitz; Sec; P. L. M. Milne; Treasurer; R. V. Campbell; Chaplain; Rev. E. H. Maddocks

Membership for the coming season was set at $10.00 and the executive have a very efficient set of officers appointed for the various duties pertaining to the successful running of a curling rink.

Special mention as made of the success of the Murdock rink, winners of the Grand Challenge at the Wainwright Spiel, and each member of that rink made a neat little speech after hearing the remarks made by the president.

We are all looking forward to a very successful curling season, and would serve notice to Chauvin brother-curlers that they had better be getting their 'besoms and stanes' ready for the fray. We will sure be hurling some challenges at them before the final curtain next spring

The Girl's Club held a very successful box social in Gorton's Hall on Friday evening. Mr A. E. Ripley served in the capacity of auctioneer and his efforts resulted in a nice little surplus. A dance occupied the balance of the evening.

Marshall Lees left for Edmonton to attend an engineering school for the inter.

As predicted in a previous 'Echo' the Ladies Aid chicken supper was a complete success and their treasury was enriched to the tune of seventy-odd dollars.

We had almost had a wild-west-bronco-busting competition in our town last week. Bert Smithson acting a 'Bill Hart' stunt offered considerable merriment and diversion to the crowd of onlookers and rode(?) a cayuse to a stand-still—at least it stood still most of the time.

A big meeting of the skaters and hockey players is to be held Tuesday in Gorton's hall for the purpose of making arrangements for the winter sport. We hope to see a big crowd out especiaaly ladies.

Another great and useful cure is sprung upon the sons of men, eat cockleburs if you feel queer and you'll be well again. For burs are full of vitamins, whatever they may be—and from all symptoms and all signs of ill they'll set us free.

Cooked victuals are the stuff, tis clear, that sends us to the tomb, and fits us for the shroud and bier while in our youth and bloom.

Roast beef is like a deadly snare and pies are like a gin; shun the accustomed bill of fare for deaths concealed therein.

Raw grub is full of vitamins, thats why the cattle grow, and why the horses hump their spines, kick up their heels and go.

Most men are languid, needing spurs to keep them at their toil, but when they've eaten cockleburs, they fairly paw the soil.

I fed my aunt some Vitamines to see what she would do; there never was such smoke as hers, as 'round the house she flew.

I wonder that our fathers stayed on this old earth so long, for all their customs were decayed and all their theories wrong.

They never heard of vitamins; and yet, bull headed men, they never would ball in their signs till three score years and ten.

Vitamines, all ready prepared and ready to take, the great tonic and invigorator $1.00 per bottle at the Chauvin Pharmacy.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE HOLD CONVENTION AT WAINWRIGHT

On Wednesday last, Grace church was the scene of a large enthusiastic gathering of ladies from Chauvin, Edgerton, Ribstone, Wainwright and district, the convention being opened by the singing of "O Canada."

After the address of welcome by Mrs. (Dr.) Middlemass, the president of Wainwright local, Mrs. McCrea of Ribstone read a very interesting paper on "The care of the sick room," after which Miss Maddocks favored the company with a song "The Valley of Laughter," which was much enjoyed.

Reports from all the locals were presented and these were interspersed with community singing; Miss L. which was greatly appreciated. Mrs. Huick was listened to with great interest and attention whilst reading her paper on Woman's place in the building of Canada. The afternoon session then adjourned and the assemblage were entertained to a sumptuous banquet in the U.F.W.A. rest-room.

Speakers at the evening session included Major Lally, Mr. Mr. J. R. Love, Mr. G. L. Hudson, and Mrs. Sawyer. Mrs. Middlemass moved the adoption of the slogan "Our boys and girl's" and Mrs. C. Rowe sweetly rendered "Calm as the night," followed by the reading of a dedicatory poem by Mrs. Wheeler of Edgerton, Two songs by Mrs. G. L. Hudson were thoroughly enjoyed and Father Lemaire gave a greatly appreciated piano solo.

Mrs. Ptolemy proposed a vote of thanks for the hospitality extended to the gathering, and after accepting the invitation to hold the convention at Ribstone next year, the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

A DOUBT ABOUT IT

The vicar of a small town was returning home one Sunday evening when he came upon two young boys having a quarrel.

They were fighting violently, stopping now and again to shout abusively at each other using very bad language.

Touching the smaller of the two boys on the shoulder, the vicar said:

"Tut, tut, my little fellow, what ever would your mother say if she heard you using such wicked words?"

"Spect she would be very pleased, sir," answered the small boy.

"Rubbish!" answered the vicar.

"You know she would not be pleased."

"I think she would be, sir; she's stone deaf."

MEETING TEMPTATION

The river was dangerous to bathers, and Johnny had been forbidden to swim.

One day, however, he came home with unmistakable signs of having been in the water. His mother scolded him severely.

"But I was tempted so badly, mother," he explained.

"Yes, I suppose you were. But how did you happen to have your bathing suit with you?"

Johnny paused, then said:

"Well, mother, I took it, thinking I might be tempted."

"Have you a noiseless typewriter?"

"No: she chatters a good deal."

THE CHAUVIN ALMA MATER

Something new or something old. Nearly all the High school boys and women have softened their hearts and joined the Red Cross and if they get many more "Clubs" in the school. Several of the members whose motto is "Safety First" are oing to stop going to school.

Notice: The girl that put a curl of hair in the desk of a pupil will please return and claim reward. A pupil.

A very pleasant entertainment was given by the High School boys and girls on Friday last. Miss Freeman's scholars were invited to listen in and they I am sure enjoyed it.

There were several class songs on the program in which all joined heartily. Then in came Miss Ina Armour, Miss Thea Armour Miss Elma Has and Miss Heather Richardson. "The Old Maide" looking as fresh and young in spite of their forty years and did some lively acting in that soul-stirring play "Four Old Maids."

Mr. Boucher and the boys gave a lively chorus which when the final "Who" came everyone felt as if they had just finished riding a bucking broncho.

The next on our little program was a lengthy recitation by Thea Armour which was enjoyed by everyone.

Ina Armour sang "When the bonny bonny heathr is blooming I'll return my sweet laddie ti you." Nate—Miss Erma Hass who enjoyed and took part and enjoyed our program is at present suffering from a severe case of love-sickness and everyone is eagerly awaiting news of her recovery.

REPRESENTING MOTHER

In a poor parish in the East End of London a suffragan bishop promised to address the women at a mothers' meeting, and to make it easier for them to attend, the lady church-workers arranged to mind their babies in another room.

Of course, it rained, and the ladies thought their work would be greatly minimised, indeed, they very much doubted whether any babies would be brought to them at all.

To their great surprise a loud knock was heard, and a small child stumbled in carrying a very fat baby. She looked nervous for a moment, and then lisped:

"Please, ladies, will you tell the suffering bishop mother is very sorry it is too wet for her to go to the meeting, but she has sent the baby, and I will come for him later."
